United States District Court EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA V.

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act. 18 U.S.C. §3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Part I - Findings of Fact (1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. §3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a (federal offense) (State or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. §3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offense described in finding (1) was committed after the defendant had son offenses described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offenses. (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction)(release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding (1). (4) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding Nos.(1), (2) and (3) that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. Alternative Findings (A) (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense — for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in _21 U.S.C. §	K _Y	sheeg Randolph	Case Number:	19-961M
(1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. $312(01) and has been convicted of a (federal offense) (State or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. $315(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment of death. an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction)(release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding (1). (4) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding Nos.(1), (2) and (3) that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. Alternative Findings (A) (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. §	require the			has been held. I conclude that the following facts
Alternative Findings (A) — (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense — for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in	(1) T	he defendant is charged with an offens (State or local offense that would have that is a crime of violence as defined in an offense for which the maximum an offense for which a maximum a felony that was committed after to 18 U.S.C. §3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), offense described in finding (1) wooffense. A period of not more than five years he for the offense described in finding	Part 1 - Findings of Fact se described in 18 U.S.C. §3142(f)(1) and have been a federal offense if a circumstance given the defendent in term of imprisonment of ten years or more the defendant had been convicted of two or for comparable state or local offenses. The committed while the defendant was on remain elapsed since the (date of conviction) (relevant).	is prescribed in more prior federal offense described in elease pending trial for a federal, state or local ease of the defendant from imprisonment)
) and (3) that no condition or combination of
Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by a preponderance of the evidence/clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will reasonably assure defendant 's appearance/the safety of the community because defendant lacks substantial ties to the community. defendant is not a U.S. citizen and an illegal alien. defendant presented no credible sureties to assure his appearance. July tear is granted to reopen and present a bail package in the future. defendant's family resides primarily in Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody perding appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on reques of an atomey for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.		for which a maximum term of under 18 U.S.C. §924(c). The defendant has not rebutted the pr	hat the defendant has committed an offense imprisonment of ten years or more is prescr resumption established by finding (1) that no	condition or combination of conditions
Part II - Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by a preponderance of the evidence/clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will reasonably assure defendant's appearance/the safety of the community because defendant lacks substantial ties to the community. defendant is not a U.S. citizen and an illegal alien. defendant has no stable history of employment. defendant presented no credible sureties to assure his appearance. but leave is granted to reopen and present a bail package in the future. defendant's family resides primarily in Part III - Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on reques of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.	(I)	There is a serious risk that the defen	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •
I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by a preponderance of the evidencelclear and convincing evidence that no conditions will reasonably assure defendant is appearance/the safety of the community because				son or the community.
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on reques of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.	convincir	nd that the credible testimony and inform gevidence that no conditions will reast defendant lacks substantial ties to the codefendant is not a U.S. citizen and an ildefendant has no stable history of employered and the credible sureties but leave is granted to reopen and presented to reopen an	rmation submitted at the hearing establishes sonably assure defendant's appearance/the sommunity. Ilegal alien. loyment. Is to assure his appearance. resent a bail package in the future.	by a preponderance of the evidence/clear and
Brooklyn, New York	facility s shall be a of an atto the purpo	eparate, to the extent practicable, from afforded a reasonable opportunity for porney for the Government, the person is use of an appearance in connection with	y of the Attorney General or his designated or persons awaiting or serving sentences or being private consultation with defense counsel. Or n charge of the corrections facility shall delice	epresentative for confinement in a corrections ng held in custody pending appeal. The defendant porder of a court of the United States or on reques

UNITED STATE